I love accompanying customers on holidays and weekends away once we know each other well. When we do know each other well I will consider you to be one of my special friends. The best way to become one of my special friends is to meet me regularly over a period of about 6 months. This gives us plenty of time to get to know each other well. Then over 6 months we can see if we are right for each other. I am always here for my special friends if you need to talk or are planning a holiday or weekend away. When we are sure that we are right for each other that is when we can start to discuss a holiday or a weekend away together. I have written several blogs about my special friends and the holiday and weekend experiences we have had. My special friends are very good to me and have taken me to some wonderful amazing places. Would you like to become one of my special friends? I am always open to meeting new special friends. I especially like travelling to places that are hot and tropical by the sea where we can have a real holiday adventure together.

I like nice relaxing weekend breaks in hotels with gyms, saunas and swimming pool facilities. If you are staying in a hotel for a weekend or a period of time and would like a companion to join you. Then I am the perfect choice for you because I have plenty of experience. I love staying in hotels with you and getting to know you well. You are guaranteed to have a great time with me. I am very discrete and professional you can read my previous stories. If you would like to go away anywhere for a holiday or weekend and need a travel companion. Consider me because I have good experience with this. You can read my previous stories and experiences. You can contact me to arrange meeting and see how things go we could be lucky and get along beautifully. You never know where a special friendship could lead once we know each other well. I am always open to making new special friends.
